WONDERFUL CURE OF PSORIASIS.

As a sufferer for thirty years from the worst form of Psoriasis, finally cured by Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, I wish to tell you my experience, that others may benefit by it. I was a grievously afflicted that the matter that exuded from my pores after the scales had peeled off, would cause my underclothing to actually gum to my body. After remaining in one position, sitting or lying down, for an hour or two, the flesh on my elbows and knees would split, so thick and hard would the crusts, scales become. The humiliation I experienced, to say nothing of physical agony, was something frightful. The detached scales would fairly rain from my coat sleeves. I have read none of your testimonials that appear to represent a case so bad as mine. But as to the cure. I commenced bathing in hot Cuticura Soap suds night and morning, applied the Cuticura Ointment, and then wrapped myself in a sheet. In two weeks my skin was almost blood red in color, but smooth and without scales. Patches of natural colored skin began to appear, and in less than a month I was cured. I am now passed forty years of age and have skin as soft and smooth as a baby's. Hoping that others may benefit by my experience, and regretting that sensitiveness forbids me from disclosing my name, I am yours gratefully,
J. H. M., Boston, Mass., Sept. 30, 1900.

QUEEN LAVINIA'S PASSING.

HERE HAS VANISHED AND THE ANCESTRY FAID IS DECLINING.

Holland Dames Found Royalty Inconvenient—Ancestors' Societies Not Exclusive Enough—More Interest in Heraldry—Condition of the Patriotic Associations.

Ex-Queen Lavinia Dempsey, who has a leaning toward the drama, ought to try her hand at a new version of "Lost in New York." She must know all about it, she has put in the last two or three years following herself. Lavinia is not the only person who is playing this sort of losing game in New York, but she does it so well that as usual she is a Queen among her rivals.

Lost along with Lavinia is the Society of the New York Holland Dames of the New Netherlands. So long as Lavinia and the Holland Dames were having coronations and things, life in New York could never be called truly dull. Now that they are no longer with us, or at least that we can't find them, we have to depend on the other circles which show in town.

It must not be understood that Queen Lavinia would approve of having any qualifying "ex" attached to her title. According to one of her ex-servants, who is perfectly willing to have the "ex" used in her own case, Lavinia was, as it were, vaccinated with royalty and it took hold.

"I resigned several years ago," said the ex-servant. "I really couldn't stand it, you know. I really couldn't stand it. I always came to grief when I didn't come to a dead stop. I had to wonder out loud, for so many occasions and that meant a shower after word and that, in its turn, meant a cold. Really, I couldn't do it. I simply couldn't. As for her present whereabouts, I don't

She says she doesn't care to be a Patriot and Founder, because that means no more than the other societies she is already in.

There are comparatively few women who have so had an attack as this. It was the excitement of hunting up papers and triumphantly getting into something that interested her.
